Kincardine Castle, Kincardine O'Neil, Scotland, UK

KINCARDINE CASTLE IS AN ARTS & CRAFTS FANTASY, BUILT IN THE 1890S TO REPLACE A MORE MODEST PROPERTY. BUILT FOR ENTERTAINMENT, THESE DAYS THE CASTLE HAS SPACE FOR 22 GUESTS TO STAY AND RELAX IN COMFORT AND GRANDEUR. OUR PASSION IS TO PROVIDE THE HIGHEST LEVEL OF HOSPITALITY, A HOME FROM HOME, WITH A PERSONALISED SERVICE FOR EVERY GUEST. IN ADDITION TO BEING AN EXCLUSIVE USE VENUE, KINCARDINE REMAINS A FAMILY HOME, AND IS ALSO THE CENTRE OF OPERATIONS FOR THE 3,000-ACRE KINCARDINE ESTATE.

Our guests have full and exclusive access to the property including the Great Hall, the Dining Room and the Drawing Room. Each of our twelve beautiful bedrooms has ensuite or private bathrooms, making Kincardine ideal for hosting private events and house parties. There is unlimited space to enjoy, including our lawns, woodland garden and our superb walled garden, as well as our woods and farmland. The world-famous River Dee runs through the estate, and its banks, rich with wildlife are a designated Site of Special Scientific Interest.

We use regenerative practices across our Farmland and Woodland with the aim of enhancing species diversity and minimising our carbon footprint.

ABOUT KINCARDINE

Kincardine Castle is a private family home offering Scottish country house hospitality in the majestic surroundings of Royal Deeside. Built as a fashionable Victorian country retreat, the castle has been entertaining guests since the 1890s. We continue to welcome house parties, weddings, family celebrations, corporate retreats, and accommodation for holidays, tours and vacations. Working with private chefs and professional household staff, each stay at Kincardine is unique to the requirements of our guests. This stately home from home with its grand surroundings, rich heritage and generous hospitality allows visitors to be part of a truly remarkable experience: living in a real Scottish castle.

THE ROOMS

MRS PICKERING'S ROOM

This was where Mrs Pickering, who built Kincardine Castle, had her private sitting room.
4-poster super king size bed, ensuite with bath and shower over.

MAGGIE'S ROOM

Maggie grew up at Kincardine, and continues to use this room when she visits now.
Double/twin, ensuite with bath and shower over.

WIGGLESWORTH

One of the two architects who designed Kincardine Castle. The bedhead, depicting two love birds, is the original overmantel from the Drawing Room fireplace, taken down in the 1930s.
Super king size bed, ensuite with shower.

NIVEN

The other of the two architects who designed Kincardine Castle. This room has a turret and faces east, catching the morning sun
Double / twin, ensuite with bath and shower over

EMSLIE

Named after the hapless decorator who once applied the wallpaper in this room inside out
Double / twin, ensuite bath with shower over

THE AUSTEN ROOM

Named after Pride & Prejudice author Jane Austen, (a Bradford great-aunt), featuring memorabilia relating to her family home, Chawton House
4-poster super king size bed, ensuite with bath and shower over

THE CHINESE BED ROOM

Features an exquisite Chinese Day Bed dating from 1780 which takes centre place in this room.
Large single bed (sleeps two cosily),
Ensuite with bath and shower over.

OLD KING COLE

For 85 years this room was decorated in Old King Cole wallpaper.
Double/twin, ensuite with bath and shower over.

THE COOK'S ROOM

A snug room where the all-important Cook slept during the Castle's Victorian heyday.
Double, ensuite with shower.

NINI'S ROOM

Jim Nielly, known as Nini by the young children in the house, used this room in the 1950s during his time as Brigadier Bradford's soldier servant.
Single, private bath.

THE HOUSEKEEPER'S ROOM

The sunlit south-facing bedroom overlooking the park, where the Housekeeper once slept.
Double / twin, ensuite with shower.

THE BUTLER'S ROOM

Another sun-lit south-facing bedroom overlooking the park, originally for the Butler.
Twin beds, ensuite with shower (wheelchair accessible).

SAY 'I DO' IN BEAUTIFUL SURROUNDINGS... OUR WEDDINGS

Kincardine Castle can be the unforgettable backdrop for a grand Scottish wedding or the stunning setting for a more personal ceremony. Whatever the scale of your celebration, Kincardine Castle can make your special day perfect.

MARQUEE WEDDINGS

Kincardine's extensive private grounds and gardens are perfect for those looking to have a larger wedding in a temporary structure such as a marquee, teepee or sail tent. You can celebrate your nuptials in true Highland style, with a dinner and ceilidh - even a pipe band!

As with all our events, you would have exclusive use of the grounds for the duration of your stay. If you want to accommodate some of your guests in true comfort at the Castle, we can arrange this too.

PRIVATE HIRE EXCLUSIVE USE

A romantic Scottish castle with spectacular unbroken views over the Cairngorms National Park, perfect for house parties, events and more. Kincardine offers exclusive use of the castle and grounds for your event or stay. The castle is set in mature gardens and parkland, with a beautiful Walled Garden, in the heart of a 3,000 acre estate overlooking the River Dee.

35 mins from Aberdeen Airport, Kincardine Castle and its Parks are perfect to hire for private events, house parties, family gatherings, weddings, corporate events, country sports and film location.

As an exclusive use venue, you will have control over your schedule and layout of your event. Our team will work closely with you to create a customised experience that meets your specific needs and preferences, with a dedicated and attentive service throughout.

You and your guests will have access to all the castle's grand public rooms, including the Great Hall, Drawing Room and Dining Room

The Dining Room is an inspiring setting for grand dinners, intimate lunches or large receptions.

The Great Hall is a grand oak panelled hall with a large open fire lending itself to entertaining.

The Drawing room offers unrivalled views on 3 aspects over spectacular Scottish hills, filled with antique furniture, opulent paintings and comfortable seating around a warm fire.

The Servants' Hall (Board Room) is light and capacious with state-of-the-art amenities available on request.

PRIVATE HIRE CORPORATE EVENTS

A secluded venue for events of all sizes. Kincardine Castle offers a luxury venue in the Scottish Highlands, ideally located and set up for corporate meetings and entertainment.

Easily accessible within 35 minutes from Aberdeen International Airport, 2 hrs from Inverness, 2.5 hours from Edinburgh and 3 hours from Glasgow. A stone's throw from some of Scotland's famous golf courses, including Gleneagles.

Private estate set in 3,000 acres at the edge of the Cairngorms National Park the castle offers privacy and comfort for all your meeting needs, from luxury client entertainment to team building opportunities.

OUR FACILITIES

Event space for up to 22 delegates, sleeps 22

High speed wi-fi across the castle

Private dining for 22, prepared with local ingredients from our private chef

ONSITE STAFF

Outdoor sports and team development activities in 3,000 acres of private estate

Outdoor seating and meeting zones within the gardens and parklands

FOOD AND DRINK

Scotland produces a huge variety of delicious, fresh ingredients, and we encourage using local produce wherever possible. The Estate itself produces venison and other game if you are feeling adventurous.

Kincardine Castle has two of the best chefs in Scotland living within a stone's throw - they can prepare an unforgettable feast for you and your guests, and can accommodate almost any budget.

We work with specialist wine merchants to supply the Castle with champagne and wine to your taste and budget. We always recommend sourcing some of the drink locally as well - whisky is often a popular addition to the menu.

PLENTY OF ACTIVITIES

Royal Deeside, chosen by the Royal Family for successive generations, has a wealth of leisure and country sport opportunities. Enjoy a day fishing on the spectacular River Dee, or stalking for roe or red deer. Book a day's pheasant shooting through our beautiful woods and rolling farmland

THE LOCAL AREA

Walking and cycling are wonderful ways to experience the magnificent scenery of the local area, we can suggest itineraries to suit all ranges of interests and abilities.

We can also offer guided e-bike tours, wildlife photography, foraging or horse riding. Contact us to find out more on how you can make the most of your stay at Kincardine Castle

We are in easy reach of several world-class golf courses, such as Royal Aberdeen, Cruden Bay and Murcar Links - Dornoch and St Andrews are also reachable.

If you prefer something less active, we can arrange a wide variety of other activities to make your stay unforgettable - shopping trips, distillery tours, castle tours or whisky tasting.

LOCAL FISHING

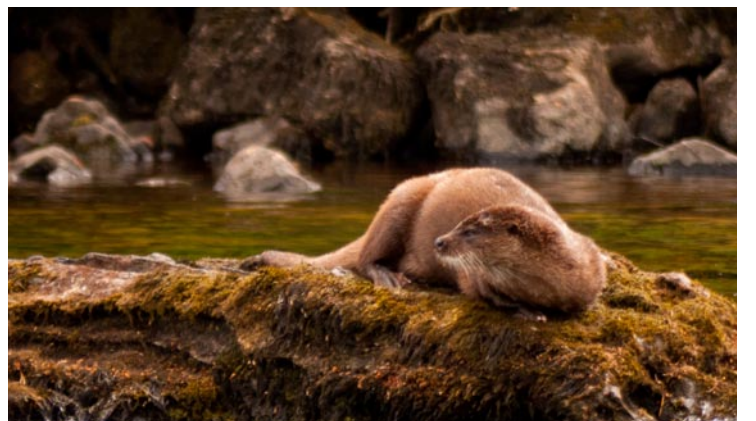

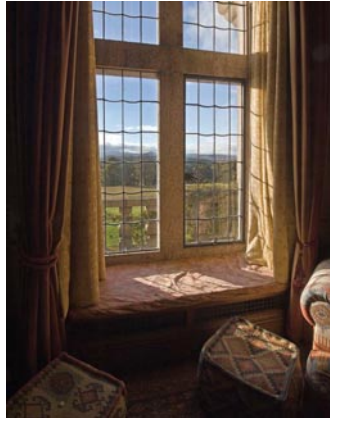

We have some of the best fishing beats in Scotland for salmon and trout with normal water levels allowing fishing from the banks.

We have partnered with FishPal to offer a discount on any direct bookings made through our site.

STALKING

A rare opportunity to stalk Roe Bucks on the estate. Stalking is over mixed farmland and woodland covering over 3000 acres. Limited dates available.
